Determined Effort to Start
Up the Steel Plants at Pittsburg.

MILLS START WORK

Strikers Are Closely Guarding All the Approaches to the Idle Plants.

TENSION IS GROWING

Pittsburg, Sept. 3.—The work of running more men into the plants of the steel trust continues almost unmolested. Thirty-two additional skilled workmen were introduced into the Star Tin Plate plant this morning. The men were escorted to the plant by a large force of police and not a single picket attempted an interception. Four of the Star Mills are now running at a normal capacity. The fifty machinists who went out last week at the Pennsylvania Tube Works returned to work this morning as did the seventy-five machinists and pipe cutters at the Continental Tube Works. No trouble has resulted from those returns.

McKeesport, September 3.—The situation here is unchanged this morning. No attempt to go to work was made by the three hundred men barred out of the Tube Works by the strikers yesterday. The strikers en masse prepared to prevent any such move.

True arrived at the fair grounds today and after getting everything in shape for business, will be ready to take care of the large amount of work that is now mapped out for them. They will be established in the new office building and there will be enough men to handle the work in each department. The management has received word that there will be from twelve to twenty heads of exceptionally fine cattle exhibited at the fair, some of them now on exhibition in the state fairs of Minnesota, Nebraska and Kansas. The programme of the fair as now arranged is as follows: Monday, September 3.—Visitors admitted; exhibits being placed in order. Tuesday, September 10.—Gates open to the public at 7:30 a. m. MADISON COUNCIL TURNS DOWN WALSH

Efforts of St. Paul Road to Knock Out
Madison-Janesville Electric Line Fail.

Madison, Wis., September 3.—The committee on streets of the common council last night decided unanimously to recommend for indefinite postponement the petition of James Walsh of Chicago for a franchise to construct in this city a second street railway in opposition to the Madison electric railway line. As a majority of the members of the council have pledged themselves to vote against the petition, its rejection is beyond doubt.

Last night's meeting was held at the request of J. M. Clancy of Stoughton, attorney for Mr. Walsh, but he did not put in an appearance. Attorney Malcolm Mount of Janesville was present to represent Mr. Walsh, but it is believed he saw it would be useless to attempt to influence the committee and hence refrained from saying anything.

The impression here is that the C. M. & St. P. R. R. is behind the Walsh petition, the object being to knock out the Madison-Janesville road which P. L. Spooner, owner of the local system and his business associates purpose to construct next year.

BRITISH TROOPS WITHDRAWN.

Foreign Supervision at Pekin Ceases—
Americans End Their Vacation.

Pekin, Sept. 3.—The detachment of the American legation which has been recuperating in the western hills has returned to this city. Capt. Selwyn withdrew his force from the British sector of the Tartar city Saturday and the direct supervision of the Chinese police and the carrying out of improvements by foreigners has ceased. The British will, however, continue to police the main thoroughfare, the railway and legation quarter. These will be the only foreign police employed, but the British and Japanese reserve police will exercise authority in their sections pending their evacuation. H. G. Squiers, secretary of the United States legation in Pekin, started for home today on leave of absence. He takes with him a collection of Chinese art filling several railway cars, which experts pronounce one of the most complete extant. Mr. Squiers intends to present the collection, which consists largely of porcelains, bronzes and carvings from palaces, bought from missionaries and at auctions of military loot, to the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art.

CONSIDERED TO BE A CASUS BELLI; VENEZUELA MAKES A STATEMENT

Formal Declaration of War Against Colombia Will Be the Outcome—Bocas del Toro Besieged by Colombian Insurgents—Other Hostile Acts.

Washington, September 3.—The Venezuelan minister of foreign affairs has handed to the United States consul at Caracas an official memorandum giving his country's version of the trouble with Colombia. It directly charges that the invasion of Venezuela by the Venezuelan revolutionist was directly connived at by the Colombian government. It goes on to say that this invasion forces Venezuela to hold herself in readiness for war.

Caracas, Venezuela, September 3.—The Official Gazette today published the memorandum of the minister of foreign affairs to all friendly nations, explaining the complaints made by Venezuela against Colombia. The case is considered to be a casus belli. There is much comment and excitement.

Colon, Colombia, September 3.—Bocas del Toro, 140 miles west of Colon, is virtually besieged by the liberals, or insurgents. They number at least 200 and, as already cabled, occupy Provision Island, which is opposite the town and commands the entrance to the harbor. They are fairly well armed, possessing two small modern cannons, as well as plenty of ammunition, and are commanded by a Nicaraguan. Among them are many Nicaraguan and Costa Rican rebels. For more than a month the rebels have been threatening the town. About a fortnight ago they improved their position on Provision Island, about a mile and a half from Bocas del Toro, which also is on an island, and the opposing forces have occasionally exchanged shots, although, with the exception of one Jamaican wounded, there have been no casualties.

The liberal position is strong and the situation is likely to remain as it is until one side or the other makes an attack. Such an action would subject the attacking party to the severe fire of their opponents, as it would be necessary to pass from Bocas del Toro to Provision Island or vice versa, in small open boats. Neither side is inclined to take this risk.

The liberal side profess to believe that a proclamation of the present situation would result in a withdrawal of the government forces from Bocas del Toro. Counting reinforcements the government has about 170 men there and the town can only be reached by very light draught steamers through roundabout channels.

Martial law prevails in Bocas del Toro. The authorities have stopped communication with other ports except Colon. They have stopped local fishing and forbidden passage along the streets after eight o'clock at night.

SMALLPOX UNDER COMPLETE CONTROL

State Board Has Been Successful in Dealing with the Disease in Northern Part of State.

Milwaukee, Wis., September 3.—The smallpox situation in the state remains about the same as it has been for the last few days, and indications are that the disease is fairly well in hand in the northern lumber camps, where the work of fumigation and vaccination has been going on for the last two weeks. The main troubles of the state board now come from the Indian reservations, the Indians being quite subject to smallpox and being very hard to quarantine.

Dr. Solon Marks, president of the board said last night that the state board had so far been very successful in dealing with the disease and unless something unusual happens is in a fair way to stamp it out before the coming of the winter.

GREETING FOR TEDDY ROOSEVELT

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 3.—Vice President Roosevelt was given a reception this morning by the members of the Grand Army and sons of veterans. Civilians were barred from the building but a great crowd waited outside to greet the vice president. When he entered the hall those present arose and shook the hall with cries of "Teddy, Teddy." The enthusiasm with which he was greeted was fully as warm as that which marked yesterday's demonstration.

KILLED IN A CLUBHOUSE.

Two Employees of Golf Organization
Murdered at Mount Vernon, N. Y.
Mount Vernon, N. Y., Sept. 3.—David Scott, a negro 40 years old, and John Stevens, steward and head waiter, respectively, of the new Swanoy Golf club here, were found murdered in the clubhouse in the morning. Scott evidently had been stabbed while in his bed, which was marked with bloodstains, and Stevens was found lying on a bed in the corner of the room with a big slash in his right leg and another near his spine. Scott crawled out of the bed after being wounded. His body was found lying in a pool of blood on the floor. A big carving knife with which the crime may have been committed was found in the folds of the steward's shirt, and a broken putter was on the floor. Warner Simms, the negro cook at the club, who reported the murders to the police, is under arrest on suspicion of having committed the double crime. Simms and the dead men were the only occupants of the clubhouse, which is a three-story frame building. They all slept on the third floor. Frank Dunington, another negro who called at the club looking for work, is under detention.

unteer Infantry Are Gathered

This regiment was mustered into service in 1861 at Racine and is held here for the first time. The late Col. Utley of Racine was long commander of this regiment. Brig. Gen. Skaar had difficulty in locating Bronson, but after a long search he learned that he had gone to Oregon to work in a mine. Skaar reached the place and learned that Bronson had committed suicide only a few days before, in destitute circumstances.

HAY FEVER VICTIMS AT MARQUETTE; THE PILGRIMAGE IS MADE BY 3,000

Tardy Appearance of Malady This Year is Ascribed to the Drouth Which Checked the Pollen.

Sneezing and blowing their noses, an army of 2,500 to 3,000 hay fever victims will invade Marquette, Mich., this week. The pretty town in the mining country is considered the most desirable refuge to sneeze in, next to a handkerchief, in the middle west. It is the official capital of the territory tributary to the Western Hay Fever association, and hundreds of members of the society stay there from midsummer to the first frost discussing the annoying affliction which so far has defied nostrums and medical skill.

This summer has been a remarkable one in the annals of the hay fever historian. Usually the nasal complaint attacks its victims about the middle of August; but this year most of the chronic sufferers have been denied the pleasure of sneezing until now. The tardy appearance of the malady is ascribed to the drought which stunted the growth of the weeds that disseminated pollen. The days of grace are now nearing a close for the sneezers who are pack-

ISLANDS SOLD TO UNCLE SAM

Danish West Indies Are Turned Over for the Sum of $4,280,000.

POINTS TO COAL UP

Purchase of Island Ends a Contention Going on for Thirty-Five Years.

DENMARK IS WILLING

London, September 3.—A dispatch to a news agency from Copenhagen today says the new Danish ministry has decided to accept the United States offer of 16,000,000 kroner for the Danish West Indies.

Washington, September 3.—It is believed here that press dispatches announcing that the new Danish Ministry has decided to accept the offer of the United States of 16,000,000 kroner for the Danish West Indies is probably correct.

This will add four islands to the possessions of the United States in the West Indies and will include St. Thomas, which is generally regarded as the best harbor and site for a naval station in the entire West Indies. The four islands in the group are St. Thomas, St. John, St. Croix and St. Eustatius—the latter being an island of little importance with only about seven square miles area.

The islands in common with the most of the West Indies, have been declining in prosperity for some years past. The total commerce of the group for the last year amounted to only about $2,000,000, about evenly divided between exports and imports. Most of the trade has been with Denmark. If the islands are annexed by the United States they will be put on the same basis as Porto Rico and will have free trade with the United States. This will divert their trade in this direction, and it is believed will greatly increase their prosperity.

COALING POINTS SECURED

Danish West Indies Now Belong to the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—Denmark's decision to sell the Danish West Indies to the United States, as reported in a brief cable from London, closes the diplomatic transactions in an event of great international interest and one of the highest importance to the United States from the point of view of the United States as a naval power. The closing of the deal puts an end to German and French intrigue with reference to these islands. There has always been the chance that the United States might have to intervene forcibly at some time to prevent a sale to Germany or France. The sale to the United States removes greatly the possibility of unnecessary international friction. All that now remains to be done is for the Senate to ratify a treaty of sale and to pay the price of acquisition which is said to be 16,000,000 kroner (about $4,280,000). The value of the Danish West Indies to the United States has been conceded ever since the time of President Grant. The idea that they should become the property of the United States has always been before congress in more or less definite shape for the past thirty-five years. All of the American diplomatists and naval authorities have consistently regarded the possession of the magnificent harbor of Charlotte Amalie as essential to the United States as a naval power. In recent years that view has been most strongly urged by Senators Lodge and Morgan. Commercially, the islands are of little value either for imports or export trade.

MUSIC IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Music in the public schools is one of the most important subjects before the people who desire that all instruction should have a practical aim and result in better equipping the pupil for their life work. Music study should not be limited to singing, but should embrace a course of training in elementary knowledge of the history of the divine art, together with some knowledge of the leading composers and their works, a training of the ear so as to enable it to grasp tonal combinations and musical forms, an ability to read vocal music of an ordinary character at sight, and to develop an intelligent love of the art on the part of the pupils.

Some people look upon music as unworthy of serious attention, and as an amusement or recreation for the pupils when fatigued in the pursuit of other studies. Such people want nothing but popular music sung and without much regard to intelligence and refinement, like some of the instructors of church boy choirs, where loudness of tone is the principal consideration, while during such practice some of the best voices are ruined.

Many teachers in the public schools are not capable of teaching music as other branches of study are taught, and the authorities should see that competent instructors are provided and that such pupils as are unable to practice singing during that period when the voice undergoes a change, occupy the time allotted to the study of music by storing their minds with valuable information relating to this art. Musical experts should interest themselves in this work. Every moment should be utilized in preparing children to not only become useful members of society but also to enable them to enjoy all the fruits of their work.

A PROLIFIC MOTHER.

She Has Thirty-Seven Children Within Nineteen Years.

Johann Steiner, a farmer from the environs of Salzburg, married in 1882, when he was 55 years of age, a girl of 25 residing in the same town. In nineteen successive confinements this woman bore, first of all, twins eight times running, then three times triplets, again four times twins, and finally four times a single child, which makes in all thirty-seven children—that is, if we can count properly.

The last child was born last week on the same day—curious fact—that its papa celebrated his seventy-fourth birthday. Thirty-four children, of whom twenty-eight are girls, are still living.—Brussels (Belgium) Chronicle.

Salt Rheum

It may become chronic.

It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering. It has been known to do so.

Do not delay treatment.

Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured, and I have never had any skin disease since."

Tailor-Made Suits.

Women's tailor-made suits at figures that are drawing in customers

We are making lower prices on good suits than any other house in Janesville. Another thing, and an important one, we have more suits to offer. Comparing new fall styles with late spring suits the difference is not great, and women can buy our suits at figures in many instances less than half price and be the possessors of a good substantial stylish costume. This suit matter is certainly worth looking into.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

August 29th. The contracting parties were Miss Grace Murray and William J. McNulty. Following the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Wm. Moore, the band gave them a fine serenade. Miss Murray has been a teacher in the high school for two or three years and endeared herself to her pupils, being a person of pleasing personality. The groom is one of our young business men. The best wishes of their many friends are extended to them. Miss Ina Ames returned to White-water Normal on Monday.

Mrs. Charlie Hamilton is at Delavan Lake for a week or two. Miss Helen Edwards left on Friday for Hinsdale, Ill., where she is engaged to teach the coming year.

Mr. A. J. Williams and family are home from Delavan Lake, where they have been during the camping season.

Mrs. C. L. Hanson is pending a couple of weeks with relatives at Lake Geneva.

Ralph Marquart, of Janesville spent Sunday with his parents. Miss Nellie Killam W will begin school at Otter Creek today. Her boarding place will be with the family of T. D. Bassett.

At the Otter Creek Sabbath school last Sunday Paul Marquart was elected president in place of Walter Lyons, resigned.

The ladies' society will meet this week Wednesday, Sept. 4, with Mrs. S. Ward.

Five little girls of the Granger families in camp at the lake spent Thursday with Gladys Brown.

GAMBLING IN NOME.

The Biggest Faro Games in the World are Being Played.

Dawson in its palmiest days never saw any higher bets made on the turn of the card than have been witnessed in two plays in Cape Nome this week. The first play came up at the Dexter, when "Bull Con" Jack and Gus Steffert attempted to put Wyatt Eary and Charlie Hoxie out of business in a few turns. "Bull Con" made several stiff bets, and with his usual luck won, and the dealer did not cut him down until he attempted to bet $1,000. It was lucky for the dealer as Jack won his $500 bet, and for some time that was the usual stake on a single card.

There was another stiff play in the Northern, when four gamblers pooled together in order to win out enough to stake themselves to a bank roll. They started in with $50 bets, which is the usual limit in the Northern, and then commenced to double, winning every bet until they had $1,050 in checks out. Then they stacked them all upon the ace and asked the dealer to turn for the bunch, but before doing so the dealer asked Proprietor James Murphy if he would "stand for it."

"Let the boys put on as much as they want, and if the ceiling is too low, we'll tear it off," said Murphy.

With that the dealer wet his finger and slipped off a card. It was a great big bullet, and four disgusted sports walked out of the house.—San Francisco Call.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Wood & Ward's vaudeville company presented a funny performance at the Myers Grand last evening to a large house. "Two Merry Tramps" was the vehicle by which the specialties were carried. The show was beyond the ordinary.

"Rip Van Winkle" is coming to the Myers Grand, Thursday, October 8, and is to be presented by Mr. Thomas Jefferson which is safe to say that it will be given in an able and artistic manner. The press throughout the country wherever Thomas has been seen as that lovable character Rip, have been universal in their praise and have predicted a great future for this young gentleman and his success in the part for the past four years has been beyond all expectations. He is said to have inherited a great deal of his father's talent and those who have seen him will have a treat in store.

He will be surrounded by a company chosen especially for their respective characters. The sale of seats opens Tuesday, October 8 and from present inquiries, a large and fashionable audience will be on hand to greet the son of our most beloved actor, Joseph Jefferson.

HIGH COLLAR SAID TO BE DOOMED

There has been considerable in regard to discarding after this fall the tall turn down collar, which has been so much worn. A local dealer when asked about the question said: "The tall turn down or band collars of two thicknesses which are being worn so extensively now, are a menace, both to the manufacturer and the retail dealer. They are more expensive to make than the old time straight collars, but sell for the same. The craze for them has evidently reached its height this summer, although many predict they will be as good sellers next year as the present season. The very low bands will be largely in vogue next season, as they were this with the ultra-fashionable.—Register Gazette.

The Milwaukee Exposition. About the only recognizable features of past expositions that visitors will recognize in the coming big electrical and industrial show which starts next Saturday will be the "gift night," which, as in former years, will be the attraction on every Saturday night during the running of the exposition. As there will be but three weeks of the show this year instead of five, there will be but four distributions of gifts, namely: On Sept. 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th. Manager Trumpf already has a large assortment of valuable and useful articles which will be given away. The character of the gifts it is said will be more expensive this year than heretofore.

On September 7-11, inclusive, the C. & N. W. Ry will sell tickets to Cleveland, O., at $10.50 for round trip limit September 15 with privilege of extension to October 8. For full particulars see ticket agent C. & N. W. Passenger station.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite. It may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by King's pharmacy and People's Drug Co.

FINALS IN THE GOLF TOURNAMENT

The finale in the handicap golf tournament for club members only is being played off this afternoon on the links of the Siniissippi golf club. In Class A Albert Schaller, scratch, is matched against Colin C. MacLean, handicap 8. In Class B, F. J. Baker, handicap 6, plays O. Sutherland, handicap 6. In Class C, Chester Brewer, handicap 6, plays Burns Brewer, handicap 12.

The Oconomowoc Country club team will be here on Friday morning and will undoubtedly have a bunch of players that will make the Siniissippi team hustle to keep from being defeated.

High School Class Entertained. Miss Hazel Willy acted as hostess last evening and entertained about forty of the members of the class of 1901, Janesville High school.

The gathering was at the home of her parents on Washington street. The lawn was lighted with Chinese lanterns, beneath which were placed small tables tastefully decorated with the class colors, purple and gold. Last evening was one that will long be remembered by the members of the class who were present. It formed a pleasant reunion of the members of the class who are still residing in the city and in a way recalled their many happy school days.

During the evening ice cream and cake and fruits were served and enjoyed by all of the guests. A number of toasts were given and responded to. Harry Kirkland spoke of "The Class as a Happy Family." Frank Kent on the "Ladies of 1901," and Lloyd Porter on the "Irish Philosophers."

Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you Eat

In speaking of indigestion, Dr. Lewis says: "It is deplorable that so many hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer from indigestion. It means that the blood of the nation is becoming impure; for undigested food poisons the blood. Unless a method is devised for overcoming this malady, our race must deteriorate."

Many persons use soda tablets to neutralize fermenting food; this only makes a chemical receptacle out of the stomach, and injures its sensitive structures. Others feed on pepsin, which is better, but not sufficient, for it digests only albuminous foods.

The preparation best fitted to relieve and absolutely cure indigestion is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It contains every known digestant and digests every kind of food. Its use is a common sense method of treating all stomach troubles, and the results are always certain.

It can't help but do you good

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST
Fair tonight and Wednesday.

POLITICAL CONSISTENCY.

The new administration organ in Milwaukee has often accused The Gazette of being a sore head, because the manager of the paper was removed from office for political reasons, two weeks before his term expired, and after his work for the year was completed.

The charge is without the shadow of foundation and is so regarded by fair minded people.

The Gazette was pronounced in its opposition to the primary election law from the time that the Stevens bill was introduced.

The paper has a strong constituency that is opposed to the measure and it could not afford to stultify itself for the sake of office.

The man behind the measure was treated courteously, but his calibre is of the small bore pattern, and any man for any paper that did not endorse his theories, was classed as a personal enemy, and dealt with accordingly.

The Gazette has no apologies to offer, is not a sore head and has not been inconsistent.

The paper stands as it has for more than half a century for republican-ism. It proposes to be fearless in advocating what it believes to be right, and it will require more than a state office, or the good will of the chief executive or private secretary to influence it against its better judgment.

The paper believes in party harmony, and advocated it strongly throughout the campaign, but if harmony can only be secured at the expense of principle, then the parting of the ways is recognized, and the paper is allied with the great unwashed throng that has been forced to organize for party protection, and the maintenance of what it believes to be right.

The life and perpetuity of the republican party in Wisconsin is a sacred obligation, and this fact is fully recognized by the men and the journals who are attempting to save it from wandering away after reform gods.

Governor La Follette and his admirers are republicans but the doctrines they advance are pernicious. Government is not theoretical, but intensely practical. It is not founded on text books, or worked out by profound treatises on political economy.

American government is peculiar to itself. It advocates the greatest good to the greatest number. The republican party has long been the exponent of the best type of this free and humane government, and in this conservative state of Wisconsin the people are slow to experiment with new theories, however plausible they may be advanced, or eloquently defended.

Consistency is called a jewel. If the republican party would retain possession of it, self interest will be sacrificed to general welfare. Men are but incidents, but principles abide. The republican party has never been destitute of principle, and is not today. It does not need reforming half as much as it needs loyal and level headed support. The party will live long after the disturbing element is forgotten.

CONSUMPTIVE CAMP.

A Boston scientist has recently established a camp for the treatment of consumption. He proposes to demonstrate the theory, in which he has great confidence, that outdoor tent life, wholesome food, freedom from care, and a return to the primitive life of the red man, will kill disease germs and restore health.

The experiment will be watched with interest. There is no doubt that the open air treatment, not only for consumption, but for many other diseases, is very beneficial. One of the leading physicians in El Paso, Texas, is a consumptive, who was obliged to give up his home and practice in an eastern state. He is prolonging his life by sleeping out of doors summer and winter.

Men and women whose lives are spent at indoor work, seldom realize the importance of God's fresh air and sunshine as a health promoter.

Unless disease is inherited, the average mortal should live out his allotted time. This is according to the Divine plan, but it is too frequently frustrated by neglect.

It pays to take time to live, and the rod and the gun, the tennis court, and golf links, the wheel or any other device that keeps men and women out of doors, are all life promoters. The time spent in healthy recreation is not wasted. It is a short trip to the grave yard, but you never come back, better keep out of the enclosure a little longer, at the sacrifice of time and a few dollars, if necessary.

The Milwaukee Journal, through its able correspondent, Ellis B. Usher, is doing more good work for Wisconsin by exposing populism and La Folletteism in South Dakota. The Journal realizes, as do all conservative citizens, that the Badger state furnishes poor soil for political fanaticism under the guise of reform.

Rev. Liggins of Cape May, recently sent to Harpers' Weekly a lengthy article on the army canteen. The paper declined to publish it, but very wisely suggested that if Mr. Liggins and his little coterie of sympathizers would stop meddling, and leave the question to the war department, it would be properly settled.

J. Pierpont Morgan asks the Amalgamated to incorporate if they want to do business. He has discovered that while a contract with capital is binding that a contract with a labor union is visionary. The Bay View men were under contract, but walked out on a grievance.

Milwaukee has reason to congratulate herself that the Bay View mills are not to be permanently closed. They should be reopened with a class of workmen who regard a business contract more sacred than a lodge obligation.

Some of the religious societies that endorsed Carrie Nation during her hatchet campaign in Kansas, have ceased to feel proud of the honor. That sort of fanaticism has a tendency to make the cause a by-word.

The Star-Argus-Stephenson-La Follette organ at Marinette has filled the atmosphere with so much electricity that the iron bridge is unsafe. What will it be when the campaign opens?

The rush for the Milwaukee oil fields has not yet commenced, but the flow of the Cream City's beverage is in a healthy condition. There is no fake about the beer, but the oil is a little off color.

Did you see the baby incubator on the Midway at the Pan-American? If the machine proves a success a baby in the house may not be so much of a calamity after all.

Everybody, except the office devil, is out for office, on the new Marinette organ. Political ambition is a good thing.

The political pot promises to have a long session in Wisconsin. It has already commenced to boil.

After the Street Sprinklers.

Alderman Gilkey is again after the street sprinklers. He claims they are ruining the paved and macadamized streets by flooding them with water. The owners of the wagons should make more trips and throw less water. In many places the macadamized streets have been ruined and made into mud holes by the large amount of water used. The sprinkling men claim that unless they use lots of water the merchants and property owners kick, and say that they will not pay them for the work. They would like the council and the merchants to agree on the amount of water they shall throw, so they will know what to do, without being kicked at by one side or the other. It is claimed on West Milwaukee street that the bricks are being softened by the use of too much water, and that something should be done to remedy it.

Approaching the One Billionth Minute.

When the twentieth century dawned on the world the number of minutes which had elapsed since the beginning of the year 1, A. D., was 998,640,000 and we shall celebrate the 1,000,000,000 minute at the end of April, 1902. Or, if you prefer to have it so, the annominal clock will tick for the sixty thousand millionth time at 10:40 on the morning of April 30, 1902.

CLOUGH EXPLAINS RAILWAY SCHEME

Eventually it is the intention of the Company to Run the Line Into Milwaukee:

H. H. Clough was in Delavan recently seeking a franchise for his proposed interurban electric line. In speaking of his claims the Republican says:

"The road which he is constructing from Rockford to Janesville is 32 miles in length and has upon it an aggregate of 72,000 population. The road to be constructed from Beloit to Elkhorn would be nearly as long—30 miles—with 16,000 resident population. The summer business done would undoubtedly be large, but as a rule summer resort roads have not proved money makers.

The company is 'sizing up' whether they may rely upon enough patronage in winter to pay the operating expenses. Eventually it is the intention of the company to run the road to Milwaukee. Mr. Clough's talk was decidedly fair and reasonable. He laid out no definite plans nor is the matter settled in his mind as to whether the road may be built.

When asked concerning this point and the reason for asking for a three year privilege he said that he doubted if the company would build before that time anyway. They would build here after completing the Janesville line and if that proved a failure not at all.

When the other line was finished which would probably be in April, 1902 they could plan on this line and probably would commence work during the summer, finishing in the spring following—1903.

Meantime by securing franchises and by putting men out to secure the right of way he would be that far advanced when the time came. The line between Rockford, Beloit and Janesville had been successfully financed; five miles of the road is now nearly graded; the equipment for the whole line was ordered. He intended to build a power house at Beloit capable of giving ample power for the road—2,400 horse power. But in all probability a sub-station would be built here.

The cars on that road are to be 45 feet over all, capable of seating fifty people; finished in cherry, with plate glass windows. The service would be the same here. In all probability the cars would be run every half hour in the summer, every hour or possibly two hours in the winter.

GRAND CONCERT ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Promises to Be a Notable Event—Sale of Seats Is Progressing Satisfactorily.

Those who purchase tickets for the concert on Friday night will not only help out in a worthy object but will get their money's worth by witnessing one of the finest entertainments ever given in this city.

The "Salvation Army Scene" from the Belle of New York with Mrs. Learned in the leading part will alone be worth the price of admission. Mrs. Learned will also appear in another selection.

Mrs. J. G. Rexford needs no introduction to the people of Janesville. She has a sweet voice of which she has perfect control and has a charming stage presence, which at once wins the attention of her hearers.

Mrs. John Fuller Sweeney is beyond question the most accomplished pianist in this section of the country. Her playing is always a treat and never fails to win her great applause.

Mrs. J. B. Day as an elocutionist has an extended reputation throughout the state. She will give several selections at the concert which will add materially to the pleasures of the evening.

The Imperial band will render several pieces as will Smith's orchestra. The High Step Military Band, a new organization in this city, will also be on hand to help out.

The children's choir of the Congregational church, made up of over one hundred voices, are holding rehearsals daily under the leadership of Mrs. William S. Jeffris and will be in perfect harmony by Friday evening.

The sale of the seats is progressing in a satisfactory manner. There are still numbers of good seats in the lower part of the house. Those intending to go to the concert should get their seats at once in order to secure the best.

Allen-Sprout Wedding

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Rev. W. W. Woodside, of the First M. E. church, performed the ceremony which united as man and wife, William Allen and Miss Flossie Sprout.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's grandmother, 165 Lincoln street. The rooms were handsomely decorated and only the families and immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. An elaborate wedding luncheon was served after the ceremony and enjoyed by all. The young couple left on a short wedding trip to Rockford after which they will return to this city to reside.

The bride is a young lady who has been in the employ of "The Fair" for some time and had a host of friends. She was a favorite with her employers who regretted to see her leave to get married.

The groom is a son of Wesley Allen and is a machinist by trade. He has been in the employ of M. D. Taylor for some time and is a steady and industrious young man, who by strict attention to his work has made himself invaluable to his employer.

The numerous friends of both the young people unite in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

THE PURPOSES OF LABOR UNIONISM

Address by George H. La Fayette of Chicago, in Court House Park Last Night.

George H. La Fayette of Chicago addressed a large and enthusiastic audience last evening in the Court house park under the auspices of the bricklayers' and masons' unions.

The Imperial band furnished the music and escorted the speaker from the Grand Hotel to the park. Mr. La Fayette is a practical man, who, during his leisure hours has studied the leading labor questions of the day. He took for his subject Unionism, Its Intent and Purposes. His address was a masterly one in its way and showed that as the country grew older the less likely the citizens were to settle labor troubles or any other difficulty by force of arms until all peaceable means had been exhausted. They now resort to arbitration rather than force. The unions will be flourishing institutions when the trusts, which are bound to fall by their own dissensions, are dead.

The settlement of all labor troubles is now carried on by means of the courts rather than by force of arms. Arbitration is the real means of the settlement of labor troubles. Mr. La Fayette spoke from the standpoint and knowledge of his own union and said that in that body the international body provides that all means to settle difficulties by arbitration before even the consideration of a strike is had. Then a constitutional mode had to be observed which requires finally the affirmative judgment of two-thirds of all the subordinate unions before any union can go on a strike or be guaranteed international support.

Of the successful union he said it was one which the members receive fair wages, work fair hours, and rendered fair services for the compensation, and also conducted its business affairs according to the dictates of reason and justice. Today unionism pleads for a fuller recognition of an understanding of man's relation to man.

Death of the Oldest Hen

The death of the oldest hen in New Jersey was affecting reported in the New York newspapers last Monday. The deceased was 14 years old, which, it seems, is a ripe age for a hen. In the form of pot-pie, her mortal remains have by this time tried the teeth, the temper and the digestion of her late owner and his family. It is said of this exemplary bird that, although she was a persistent sitter to the last, she had long since ceased to lay eggs.

AIR PRESSURE VERY GREAT.

The air pressure upon a person of ordinary size is 13 1/2 tons. Of course, that does not include the weight of responsibility upon the shoulders of those who do not have one of the Aetna Life's new policies, but are attempting to carry their own risk. ELKHORN PAPER MAKES A PROTEST

Says That the Electric Road Franchise Bought by Janesville Parties Is for Speculation.

The Elkhorn Independent is of the opinion that the electric franchise bought by Janesville parties is for speculative purposes. It says: "Our city should never surrender her streets to a corporation which asks three years in which to complete an electric road. The franchise should require the road to be completed and the cars to be run at regular intervals on and after July 1, 1902. While we agree with a majority of our good citizens that a franchise should be granted, the three years' clause smacks of speculation for Mr. Hurd and his associates which should be nipped at once. This whole country will be a network of electric roads within a few years. These systems will revolutionize transportation. Other and better companies may apply for the same franchises within three years. Probably will. And Elkhorn cannot afford to be practically tied up for that length of time or for three years before completion."

LATE FOREIGN NEWS

Expect a Record Vintage.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—Germany's wine growers are jubilant over the prospect of reaping a record vintage this year. The outlook for them is in marked contrast with the gloomy expectations of the proprietors of French vineyards. Producers in the Rhine and Mosel districts count on a vintage rivaling both in quality and quantity the famous harvest of 1893. Walter Schumann, the American consul at Mainz, in the heart of the Rhine wine valley, says: "The summer heat, interspersed with refreshing showers, has forced vegetation splendidly in the vineyards. The luxuriant growth of vines began to flower early, being complete in most districts by July 1, under the influence of almost continuous sunshine. In this respect therefore 1901 may be considered easily the best year since 1893, when the period of florescence was completed by June 20."

To Use the Edison Process.

Stockholm, Sept. 3.—Extreme uneasiness is manifested among persons connected with the iron industry of southern Sweden, lest disaster shall overtake it as a result of the application of the Edison ore milling syndicate's new process of extracting iron from the ore. This process will be applied at Ofoten in northern Norway, where the motor force will be taken from waterfalls. A new railway to Swedish Lapland will shortly carry down ore to Ofoten from Gollivara, as the Swedes have no coal there, to make iron themselves. The steamers which transport Edison's product from Ofoten to England will take back cheap coke wherewith to make pig iron. Southern Swedish iron manufacturers, since they must burn charcoal, foresee destructive competition.

Turkey Will Not Yield.

Paris, Sept. 3.—The Matin announces that it has received from a source alleged to be authoritative in Constantinople information to the effect that the Sultan, relying upon the assurances of a great power that France will not proceed to force, will refuse any concession in the Constantinian affair. It is rumored that a naval division will be ordered to Turkish waters to-day.

One Saved in Crew of Forty.

London, Sept. 3.—A dispatch to Lloyd's from Trebizonde says that the Johnstone line steamer Northmere (Norammore), with a cargo of oil, has foundered near Athens. The crew, numbering forty, were all lost except one. The steamer was bound from Batoum to Bombay.

Nine British Killed by Boers.

London, Sept. 3.—Lord Kitchener reports to the War Office that nine persons were killed and seventeen wounded in the blowing up and derailling of a train by Boers yesterday. The attack on the train was between Waterval and Hamanskraal.

To Stay in China Till Spring.

Calcutta, Sept. 3.—It is announced by government officials here that a regiment of British cavalry, a regiment of native Indian infantry and a battery of field artillery will be detained in China until next spring.

Charge Is $500,000 Forgery.

London, Sept. 3.—Marie Josephine Eastwick of Philadelphia was arraigned in the Guild Hall police court to-day charged with having forged a railway certificate of the value of £100,000.

Farmer Frozen to Death.

Greensburg, Pa., Sept. 3.—Despite the season, hail fell to the depth of two feet in the ridge above Lionton, and it is believed Edward Miller, a farmer, was frozen to death in the terrific storm. Miller left for the ridge shortly before the storm broke. Searching parties have failed to find him. Two other persons were caught in the driving hail and narrowly escaped perishing in the cold. Mrs. W. E. Ross, who was in the storm, had her legs badly frozen. George G. Harr, a farmer, succeeded in reaching his home, but was badly bruised.

Whipped by Whitecaps.

Dublin, Ind., Sept. 3.—Whitecaps organized at Richland, in Rush County, proceeded against the home of Joseph Hankins, a farmer of that vicinity, took him into the woods and whipped him. Hankins has been accused of mistreating his wife and children. He gave no attention to the warnings. The wife and children are in a destitute condition.

Fast Freight Kills Youths.

Buffalo, Sept. 3.—A special dispatch from Warsaw says: Albert H. Brewer, twenty years old; William H. Brewer, eighteen years old, both of Warsaw, and William Carmody, aged twenty years, of Dale, N. Y., were instantly killed on the Erie Railroad track. In company with William French of that town they had been in the village yesterday and had started for their respective homes at a late hour, walking on the track. An approaching engine on the switch attracted their attention, and they were run down by a fast freight while standing on the main track.
